Joseph Colligan and Mary Jo (Gugino) Colligan began Angels of Mercy in 2007

Joe Colligan~

As Co-Founder and Vice President of Angels of Mercy, I have been involved since the inception of Angels of Mercy with my wife, Mary Jo. Having experienced personal challenges and seeing so many others in pain and suffering, I knew it was time to help. Mary Jo and I looked into many programs that help women with life controlling issues. After much thought and prayer, we knew we wanted to be a Christian-based organization that would serve women and help them to overcome their individual struggles.

As a result, we started Angels of Mercy whose home is now at 692 N Winton Rd, Rochester, NY. There we offer the Butterfly Boutique where women can come and get clothing "free of charge" in an atmosphere that fosters unconditional love and respect. It is also the NY State office for Dress A Girl. We hold an annual clothing drive, have fundraisers throughout the year to grow our ministry and support local shelters throughout the community.

Joe is an Account Manager with Airgas, USA serving the welding, safety and medical markets throughout the area.

Mary Jo and I have been married for 32 years, we have two daughters and two beautiful grandchildren.
